LAFOURCHE PARISH SCHOOL BOARD

CREDIT INFORMATION

INTRODUCTION

The Board is a political subdivision of the State of Louisiana. It was created under Louisiana Revised Statute (LRS) 17:51 for the purpose of providing free public education for the children within Lafourche Parish. The Board is authorized by (LRS) 17:81 to establish polices and regulations for its own government that are consistent with the laws of the State of Louisiana and the regulations of the Louisiana Board of Elementary and Secondary Education. The school board is comprised of 9 members who are elected from 9 districts for a term of four years.

The Board operates 30 non-charter schools within the parish with a total enrollment for fiscal year 2023 of 13,642 pupils and 2 charter schools with a total enrollment of 965. In conjunction with the regular educational programs, some of these schools offer special education programs. Additionally, the school board provides transportation and school food services for the students.

TAXES

Sales/Use Taxes: Act 1029 of the 1991 Regular Legislative Session exempts the Board from paying any state and local sales taxes. Effective September 1, 1992, no invoices may contain a charge of any sales taxes. According to the latest statement for the Louisiana Department of Revenue and Taxation the same regulations apply to the individual schools. No sales/use taxes should be charged, if the following is true:

The invoice is made out to the individual school or the Board, or the bill is paid with individual school or Board check.

Attached is a partially completed Form-1056. Please insert your company's name in the first blank at the top of the form, and your company's address in the next blank. Retain the form for your records.

The above information is being provided for the purpose of credit assessment. All information contained is true to the best of my knowledge.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
